Potentially Rental Fraud, Illinois

ARA Member Thompson's Grand Rental Station in Bensenville, IL reports a subject rented several machines which he now refuses to return and will not provide payment on.

Similar to other past offenders, the subject apparently provided what appears to be a valid State of Illinois Identification including his real name. The credit cards used to secure the rental were also in his name and initially were funded. Subsequently, the cards are no good, and it was discovered the address on the ID is a large complex (the ID does not include an apartment number, etc). The job addresses provided are vacant.
